BUSINESS
INTRODUCTION

Daqian Classics was founded in 2016, focusing on coffee equipment research and development, laying the foundation for high-quality genetics.

2016 | Foundation

Established Daqian Classics, focusing on the R&D of portable coffee equipment.

Refining the Essentials

Our early focus was on manual coffee gear, including portable brewers and frothers, dedicated to perfecting the core functionality.

Quality-Centric

Guided by the pursuit of excellence, we strictly control materials and craftsmanship to establish a foundation of trust with our users.

Tailored Service Approach

Through dedicated one-on-one consultation, we gain a profound understanding of your specific needs, defining our luxury service standard.

In 2023, technical bottlenecks were overcome, marking the launch of independent research and development for lithium battery-powered portable coffee machines.

Project Initiation

In March 2024, the first model "Wakeful" was officially launched, marking a key step toward transforming technology into a commercial product.

Product Positioning

The product is clearly positioned as a portable espresso machine, meeting users' demand for high-quality coffee in mobile scenarios.

Independent R&D

The brand initiated independent research and development, focusing on battery-powered portable espresso machines to integrate efficient extraction with mobile usability.

Technology Maturity

By 2023, lithium battery technology had matured, providing stable power endurance and safety assurance for portable coffee machines, solving the core challenges of product implementation.

Design Aesthetics

Combining aesthetics with practicality, enhancing portability and user experience.

Market Attention

The product design quickly gained market attention, validating the market demand and acceptance of portable coffee machines.

Function Implementation

Achieved efficient espresso extraction under battery power, balancing performance and portability, improving usage flexibility.

Foundation for Iteration

The first model accumulated valuable experience for future product iterations, laying a solid foundation in both technology and design.

02

BRAND STORY

2025 marked the brand's renewal and upgrade. KSD officially set sail, ushering in a strategic expansion into a full range of categories.

Brand Evolution

The year 2025 saw Daqian Classics rebranded as KSD, opening a new chapter in the brand's strategic expansion into the full spectrum of coffee machines.

Strategic Upgrade

Leveraging KSD as the core, we are strategically positioning a complete series of portable coffee solutions across various scenarios, broadening our market horizons.

Mission Continuity

Upholding our original pursuit of excellence and embracing cutting-edge technology, so that the joy of professional coffee is within everyone's reach.
